Background

Cuyamaca College, built in 1978, provides transformational educational opportunities whether the student is just starting college, planning to transfer to a university, returning to launch a career or to pick up new skills. One out of every three East County adults have taken classes at Grossmont or Cuyamaca colleges.

Cuyamaca College serves the East San Diego County communities of Alpine, Crest, Dehesa, El Cajon, Jamul, Lakeside, La Mesa, Lemon Grove, Rancho San Diego, Santee, Spring Valley and beyond to the Imperial County and Mexican borders. Its specialty programs attract students from throughout the region.

Location

Nestled in the tree-studded hills on 165 acres that was the Monte Vista Ranch, Cuyamaca College is located in Rancho San Diego at 900 Rancho San Diego Parkway in the outskirts of El Cajon. The beautifully pastoral campus is 15 miles east of San Diego via Highway 94.

Mission Statement

The mission of Cuyamaca College is to serve a diverse community of students who seek to benefit from the college's wide range of educational programs and services.

Enrollment

Cuyamaca currently serves more than 9,000 students per semester.
