Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District
Overview

Since 1961, the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District has enhanced the quality of East County life by providing a top notch, affordable education. The 1,138-square-mile district includes two colleges, Grossmont and Cuyamaca. Increasingly, flexible class schedules and learning opportunities are providing a wide range of education options for busy people.

The District serves more than 18,000 students each semester. Grossmont first convened classes in 1961 and has about 13,000 students every semester. Cuyamaca was built in 1978 and has more than 8,000 students each semester. The colleges lead the way in developing educational programs, classes and services that meet the needs of the community of learners.

The colleges each offer hundreds of degree and certificate programs. More than 4,000 degrees and certificates were awarded at Grossmont College, while more than 1,000 degrees and certificates were awarded at Cuyamaca College.

The colleges offer short-term classes (four, six or eight weeks), open entry-open exit, on-line and blended courses, Saturday courses, and contract education.
